C. INTRODUCTION & SUMMARY OF OFFENSES

Kelly Rindfleisch was hired by Deputy Chief of Staff Tim Russell in early 2010 to fill a position as Policy Advisor within the Offices of the County Executive. When she arrived for her first day of work, Chief of Staff Tom Nardelli was unaware she had been hired. Rindfleisch, however, was a former legislative aide who had worked in Madison. There she had met the then County Executive's friend and advisor, Jim Villa. She also knew Keith Gilkes from her work in Madison.

Using a non-County issued, personal laptop computer and a non-County, private wireless Internet connection supplied by Tim Russell, Ms. Rindfleisch worked on projects assigned to her by Russell (at least according to her own description shortly after starting in the County Executive's Office as a policy advisor). In an Internet chat on January 25, 2010 with a friend, George Ermert, after Ermert learned of the private wireless network in the County Executive's Office, Ermert asked Rindfleisch if she "was going to be helping out the campaign too." Rindfleisch replied to Ermert that:

"half of what I'm doing is policy for the campaign."

Rindfleisch stated that she worked on Operation Freedom as well. See Figure 1 below.

ermegj: who do you work with?
ermegj: what are your policy areas?
rellyk: tim russell rellyk: fran rellyk: I don't have specific policy areas rellyk: I do projects tim gives me ermegj: what's your title?
rellyk: policy advisor
ermegj: that's fancy rellyk: not really rellyk: but I don't need fancy

ermegj: i wish you didn't work for government...now i can't talk to you about campaign stuff online rellyk: i'm on my laptop rellyk: separate system
ermegj: oh...not shit
ermegj: so it's cool?
rellyk: yah
ermegj: are you goign to be helping the campaign out too?
rellyk: really, half of what i'm doing is policy for the campaign rellyk: its policy stuff but its for use over there rellyk: i'm also doing operation freedom

Figure 1

Rindfleisch was promoted to Deputy Chief of Staff in March 2010. Her office was located less than twenty-five feet from the office of then County Executive Scott Walker. See Appendix A.

From February until July 2010, Rindfleisch worked as a fundraiser for the campaign committee "Brett Davis for Lt. Governor." Detailed below, substantial fundraising work was done for Brett Davis during business hours while Rindfleisch was paid to do work on behalf of Milwaukee County.

Persons associated with the Friends of Scott Walker campaign committee generally favored Brett Davis over other candidates for the office of Lieutenant Governor.

Darlene Wink resigned her position in the County Executive's Office on about May 14, 2010 because of her apparent political work during the business day. In the weeks thereafter, Ms. Rindfleisch thereafter decreased the amount of fundraising work she did from the County Executive's Office.

Dan Morse, a fundraiser for the Friends of Scott Walker, was brought on to help with Davis' fundraising activities in June 2010. Rindfleisch did not work well together with Morse and she resigned her position with the Davis campaign in July 2010. Morse continued his role as a Davis and a Walker fundraiser through the end of each of these campaigns.

After leaving county government in November 2010, Ms. Rindfleisch worked on the Governor Walker Inauguration. Thereafter, although her salary is listed as an "In Kind" contribution from the Republican Party of Wisconsin to the Friends of Scott Walker, Ms. Rindfleisch worked as a fundraiser for the Friends of Scott Walker. To my knowledge, Ms. Rindfleisch left this position in the second week in January 2012.

D. VENUE AND JURISDICTION

Based upon a review of Rindfleisch's personnel file produced by Candace Richards of the Department of Human Resources of Milwaukee County in response to a John Doe subpoena, I know that Ms. Rindfleisch was employed as an "Administrative Secretary, Policy Advisor" in the Office of the County Executive for the period of January 13, 2010 to March 14, 2010.

Further, based upon a review of Rindfleisch's personnel file, on March 15, 2010, Ms. Rindfleisch was promoted to the position of Deputy Chief of Staff in the Milwaukee County Executive's Office. Ms. Rindfleisch held this position through November 2010.

The Office of the County Executive is located in the Milwaukee County Courthouse, located at 901 North 9th Street, City of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin.

Milwaukee County is a political subdivision of the State of Wisconsin.

Ms. Rindfleisch established a residence in Milwaukee County in March 2010. Based upon a review of personnel records produced by Candace Richards, Department of Human Resources of Milwaukee County, I know that as of June 2, 2010 Ms. Rindfleisch claimed her residence as 1331 South 93rd Street, West Allis, Wisconsin.

James Villa was the former Chief of Staff for the Milwaukee County Executive's Office. He is a long-time personal friend of Scott Walker. He served as an informal advisor to the Friends of Scott Walker in 2010. In his testimony before the John Doe Judge, James Villa stated that he resides at 1331 South 93rd Street, West Allis and that in March 2010, Ms. Rindfleisch began living at his home several days a week. This is the same address that Ms. Rindfleisch claimed as her Milwaukee County residence to fulfill her residency requirement as a Milwaukee County employee.

Andrea Boom is a woman who worked with Kelly Rindfleisch prior to Rindfleisch's employment in Milwaukee County. In 2011, Ms. Boom worked together with Ms. Rindfleisch at the offices of the Friends of Scott Walker. In her testimony before the John Doe Judge, Andrea Boom stated that she engaged in "chat sessions" with Ms. Rindfleisch using the chat account of dreday_89@hotmail.com. Boom identified the moniker of "rellyk" as belonging to Kelly Rindfleisch. Figure 2 is a copy of part of a "chat session" recovered from Kelly Rindfleisch's laptop computer.¹ According to the information obtained from the Rindfleisch laptop and as confirmed by the John Doe testimony of Andrea Boom, Ms. Rindfleisch engaged in a "chat session" with Andrea Boom, which chat session bears a date of Wednesday April 28, 2010 beginning at 8:20 a.m. As set forth in Figure 2, Rindfleisch "chatted" that she does have a residence requirement as an employee for Milwaukee County and that she lives on "93rd and Greenfield" at the home of her friend, Jim Villa.

¹ The Rindfleisch laptop was recovered on November 1, 2010 when Investigators for the Milwaukee County District Attorney's executed a search warrant in the Milwaukee County Executive's Office seeking evidence of Misconduct in Public Office and Political Solicitation Involving Public Officials and Employees. Rindfleisch's laptop was imaged and examined by Milwaukee County District Attorney Office Information Technology Manager and certified EnCase forensic computer examiner James Krueger.

rellyk: I was thinking you not trevor Andrea: well, yeah
Andrea: but neither one of us lives there rellyk: nope
Andrea: do you have a residency requirement?
rellyk: yep
rellyk: I live on the corner of 93rd and Greenfield
rellyk: you actually get six months to move
Andrea: dude
Andrea: did you sell your house?
rellyk: which in this case, if he wins, it wouldn't matter rellyk: no
rellyk: it's my friend villa's house
Andrea: nice
rellyk: I stay 2 nights a week
rellyk: hence having michaela take care of the beasts Andrea: so when he wins, you can just live in Columbus
rellyk: yep

Further, on November 1, 2010, I executed a Search Warrant at Rindfleisch's residence at 1331 South 93rd Street, West Allis. At that time, Rindfleisch accompanied me. She let investigators into the house with her key, and Ms. Rindfleisch showed me the bedroom where she stayed.

E. STATUTES AND RULES APPLICABLE TO MILWAUKEE COUNTY EMPLOYEE CONDUCT

Ms. Rindfleisch, at all relevant times, was a public employee within the meaning of Wisconsin Statutes §946.12.

F. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RULES FOR MILWAUKEE COUNTY EMPLOYEE CONDUCT

Laurie Panella is the Acting Director of the Milwaukee County Information Management Systems Division ("IMSD") of the Department of Administrative Services.

Pursuant to John Doe Subpoena, Ms. Panella produced IMSD documents and records relevant to the John Doe investigation. In this regard, I have reviewed a document entitled "USE OF TECHNOLOGIES POLICY" signed "Kelly Rindfleisch" and dated January 13, 2010. The Rindfleisch signature appears immediately below the following text:

I acknowledge that I am in receipt of Milwaukee County's Use of Technologies Policy and that violations of my obligation to adhere to this policy may result in progressive steps of discipline, which may include my discharge from Milwaukee County service. I also understand that violations of the policy on my part may result in Milwaukee County taking action that will deny me access or rights to any of Milwaukee County's technology resources.

My signature on this Policy does not imply agreement with the policy, but rather shows that I have read and received a copy of this policy from the management of my workplace.

The Milwaukee County Technology Policy prohibits the use of county equipment² for fund raising, political campaign activities, or public relations activities not specifically related to County government activities.

G. THE RECORDS OF THE CERIDIAN TIMEKEEPING SYSTEM FOR MILWAUKEE COUNTY DOCUMENT WHEN KELLY RINDFLEISCH WAS WORKING AS AN EMPLOYEE AND WHEN SHE CLAIMED OFF-TIME

I am familiar with a Milwaukee County timekeeping system known as the "Ceridian" system. In the course of this John Doe investigation, subpoenas were served upon Milwaukee County for records relating to the time reporting of Kelly Rindfleisch. These records reflect Rindfleisch's off-time due to vacation, personal holidays, sick time and other forms of sanctioned employee leave. Except as otherwise noted in the paragraphs below, when I refer to an action taken by Kelly Rindfleisch between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, I have checked the Ceridian records and confirmed that Kelly Rindfleisch reported no employee off-time on that day.

H. THE JOHN DOE INVESTIGATION HAS GATHERED RECORDS TENDING TO ESTABLISH THE DATES AND TIMES THAT KELLY RINDFLEISCH WAS AT HER DESK IN THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE'S OFFICE

I know that Milwaukee County Courthouse Complex employees are routinely issued electronic "Key Cards" that allow access to otherwise secure areas of county buildings. These areas include the exterior entrances to the Courthouse and the offices of the County Executive. The "Key Card" system maintains a digital record of each time a specific card is swiped by the cardholder, including the location accessed by the cardholder. As part of the John Doe investigation, these Key Card access records for the Key Card assigned to Kelly Rindfleisch were subpoenaed and examined.

Like county "Key Card" records, CPS Parking also maintains records for those persons who park in MacArthur Square parking lot on a monthly basis. The John Doe Judge issued a subpoena for these records, which I have also reviewed as they relate to Kelly Rindfleisch. The MacArthur Square parking lot is immediately adjacent to the Milwaukee County Courthouse, and many persons who work in the Courthouse Complex rent space for parking there. CPS Parking issues access cards to its monthly parking customers. These access cards are scanned at the time of entry into and exit from the MacArthur Square parking lot. A record is created at the time of entry and exit recording the date, time and the card used for entry or exit. Obtained by John Doe subpoena, I have examined these CPS Parking records for Kelly Rindfleisch.

Based upon my review of parking records during the time that Ms. Rindfleisch parked

² The policy states:

For the purpose of this policy, technologies in the work environment shall refer to a wide array of equipment and/or software, including, but not limited to: analog and digital telephone services (voice mail, message broadcasting, message/call forwarding), facsimile (fax) machines and servers, image scanning and copying equipment, shared and stand-alone computers (both fixed and portable) and their peripherals, pagers (text and voice), cellular phones, data networks, dial-up network facilities, global positioning systems (GPS), radios (VHF, UHF, 800 MHz, 800 MHz trunked, fixed and portable units), and wireless services.

her car in the MacArthur Square parking lot (April 1, 2010 to November 2, 2010) and based upon my review of county "Key Card" records (April 1, 2010 to November 2, 2010), I can state as a general matter that Ms. Rindfleisch arrived at the Courthouse Complex at about 7:00 a.m. and left from the MacArthur Square parking lot between 4:30 and 5:30 p.m.

I. INVOLVEMENT WITH CAUCUS SCANDAL

The information in this section of the complaint is based upon my review of the reports written by Department of Justice Division of Criminal Investigation Special Agent Dorinda M. Freymiller.

Because it bears upon Ms. Rindfleisch's knowledge of the proper limits placed upon the conduct of public employees under the laws of the State of Wisconsin, I note that, on December 16, 2002, Ms. Rindfleisch was interviewed by State Department of Justice Agents investigating the Caucus Scandal.

As part of the interview, Rindfleisch was shown an Immunity letter from then Dane County District Attorney, Brian Blanchard, according to the reports of the Special Agents conducting the interview.

Rindfleisch was employed as a staffer for Representative Scott Gunderson from January 1995 - May 1999. She worked at the Assembly Republican Caucus (ARC) in legislative services and media from May 1999 - March 2000. Rindfleisch worked at the Senate Republican Caucus (SRC) from March 2000 - December 2001 as a policy analyst, and was – at the time of the interview - employed as a staffer for State Senator Mary Panzer.

Rindfleisch stated that, when she began working at the ARC, Sherry Schultz helped Rindfleisch with planning and organizing fundraisers for Assembly Republican Members.

Rindfleisch stated that ARC staffers were assigned to work with specific new members of the Assembly. ARC staffers were expected to help the new member with setting up their office structure, policy issues and fundraising. Rindfleisch stated she left the ARC before the 2000 campaign cycle began, so her involvement with fundraising was mostly related to compiling lists of potential people to invite.

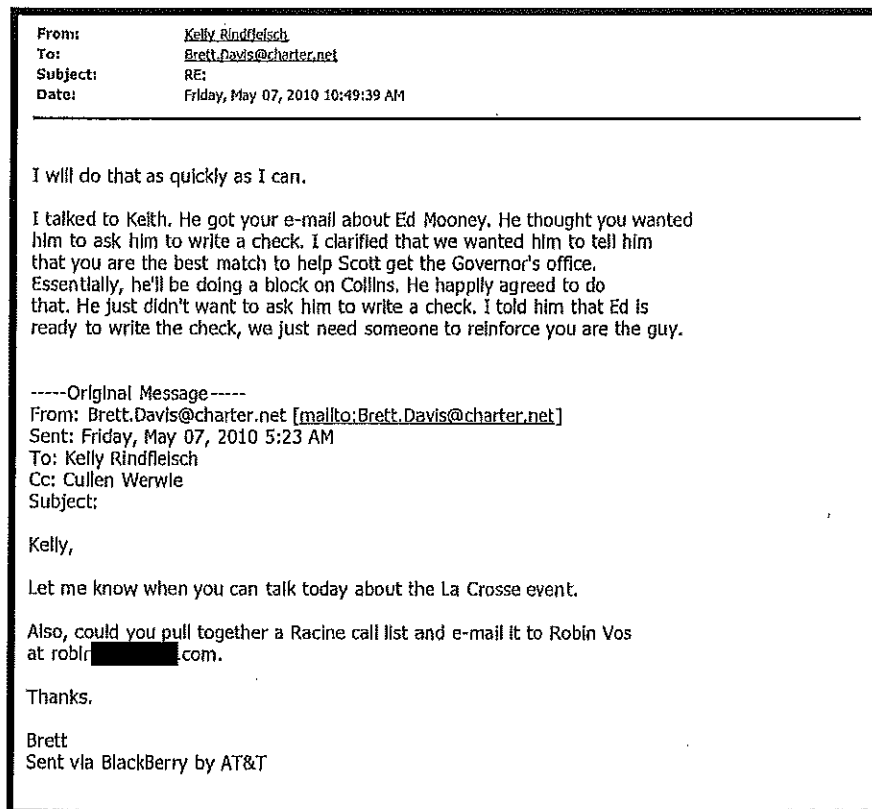

Rindfleisch stated that she was approached by a Brian Fraley who asked her to work at the SRC. Rindfleisch gave statements regarding her work on political campaigns as directed by Brian Fraley. She stated that her pay as a state employee would be reduced by 80% to 100% during these times. Rindfleisch also spoke about campaign materials removed from the SRC and placed in storage at the direction of Brian Fraley, after the 2000 campaign season and before January 1, 2001.

J. FROM THE DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF'S OFFICE IN THE COURTHOUSE, RINDFLEISCH CONDUCTED FUNDRAISING FOR LT. GOVERNOR CANDIDATE BRETT DAVIS, THE "BEST CANDIDATE" FOR THE FRIENDS OF SCOTT WALKER, ALL WHILE BEING PAID BY BOTH THE TAXPAYERS OF MILWAUKEE COUNTY AND THE DAVIS CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

1. Brett Davis was the favored Lieutenant Governor candidate of the Friends of Scott Walker.

a. Keith Gilkes, Campaign Manager of the Friends of Scott Walker, considered Davis as "the" candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Keith Gilkes served as the manager for the campaign committee, the Friends of Scott Walker.

As set forth in Figure 3 at top of thread,³ on the morning of May 7, 2010, a furlough day for Rindfleisch, at about 10:50 a.m., Kelly Rindfleisch wrote to then Assemblyman and Lieutenant Governor Candidate Brett Davis. She advised Davis that she had been speaking with Keith Gilkes (the Friends of Scott Walker [FOSW] campaign manager) and that Gilkes said that he (Gilkes) had gotten Davis' e-mail about Ed Mooney. See Figure 3. Rindfleisch explained to Brett Davis that Gilkes thought that he (Gilkes) was supposed to ask

Mooney for a contribution. That was not correct, Rindfleisch said, and she clarified for Gilkes as follows, "I clarified that we wanted him (Gilkes) to tell him (Mooney) that you are the best match to help Scott get the Governor's office." Rindfleisch goes on to explain to Davis, "I told him (Gilkes) that Ed is ready to write the check, we just need someone to reinforce you are the guy." See Figure 3.

³ This e-mail was obtained from Google Gmail, provided in response to a Search Warrant authorized by the John Doe Judge for the account of kmrindfleisch@gmail.com. This e-mail account has consistently been identified in John Doe testimony as belonging to Kelly Rindfleisch.

With an e-mail to Gilkes on May 19, 2010 at about 12:50 p.m., Rindfleisch followed up on her earlier e-mail asking Gilkes if he had an opportunity to speak with Mooney. See Figure 4 at bottom of thread. On May 19, 2010 at 1:23 p.m., Gilkes responded to Rindfleisch, "I talked with him personally Friday. I think he agreed with why I thought Brett is the candidate." See Figure 4 at top of thread.⁴

Additionally, Gilkes assisted Rindfleisch in her fundraising efforts for Brett Davis. On June 18, 2010 at 9:50 a.m., a workday, Kelly Rindfleisch wrote to Brett Davis during her workday. See Figure 5. Based upon her e-mail to Brett Davis and to Davis' campaign manager, Cullen Werwie, Gilkes was to provide to Kelly Rindfleisch the names of two people who did successful events for Scott Walker in the Racine area.

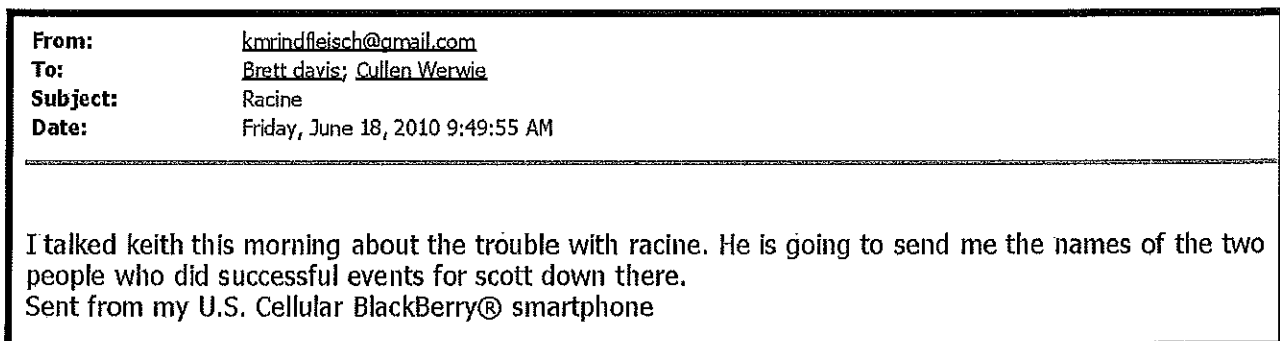

Figure 5

- b. Stephan Thompson, Deputy Campaign Manager for the Friends of Scott Walker, supported Brett Davis as the Lieutenant Governor candidate.

Stephan Thompson served as the Deputy Campaign Manager for the Friends of Scott Walker during 2010.

Mr. Thompson confirmed in his John Doe testimony on October 18, 2011 that he favored Brett Davis as the candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and he further confirmed that "generally speaking the campaign favored Davis as the Lieutenant Governor candidate."

⁴ See footnote 3 for source information.

c. Jim Villa, chair of the Walker Inaugural Committee and a close personal advisor to the Friends of Scott Walker, supported Brett Davis for Lieutenant Governor.

Noted above, James Villa was, prior to Tom Nardelli, the Chief of Staff for County Executive Scott Walker. In 2010 he served as an informal personal advisor to Scott Walker and his campaign. He has known Scott Walker since college.

Villa supported Brett Davis as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor in a number of ways. First, he helped raise funds. On April 14, 2010 at 7:15 a.m. on that date, Rindfleisch wrote to Brett Davis as shown in Figure 6.⁵

From: Kelly Rindfleisch
To: Brett.Davis@charter.net
Subject: RE:
Date: Wednesday, April 14, 2010 7:14:50 AM

Villa sat down last night and made a list of people he is going to call. I told him again I wanted 5k, but I think $2,500 is probably more realistic.

I'll incorporate this into the spreadsheet.

On June 10, 2010, as confirmed by James Villa's testimony before the John Doe Judge, Mr. Villa sent via e-mail a fundraising letter endorsing Davis and asking for contributions to his campaign. Villa wrote:

As you may know, Brett Davis is running as a Republican for Lt. Governor. Brett is currently a State Representative and prior to that served with Secretary Tommy Thompson at DHHS in DC. I've known Brett for a long time and I know he would be a great Lt. Gov. and would make it into a serious office that actually does something for taxpayers.

The race for Lt. Gov. isn't getting a lot of attention so Brett needs to raise money to get his message out. I'm asking as a friend for you to support Brett with a contribution of $50, $100 or whatever you can afford. I've attached an invitation to an upcoming event that is being held for Brett with Tommy Thompson as the special guest. Please feel free to come if you would like or you can send your money directly into the campaign.

Mr. Villa also testified that based upon his conversations with Walker campaign staffers on the issue of the Lieutenant Governor race (which he described as limited) "it was generally agreed to that Brett (Davis) would have been a better candidate than the other two or three."

⁵ See footnote 3 for source information.

d. John Hiller, Treasurer of the Friends of Scott Walker, supported Brett Davis for Lieutenant Governor.

I have reviewed the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board Campaign Finance Information System records for the contribution activity of John Hiller, the Treasurer for the campaign committee Friends of Scott Walker. GAB records show that Hiller contributed to one Lieutenant Governor candidate only, that being Brett Davis, giving $200 on June 6, 2010.

2. Rindfleisch worked to raise funds for Brett Davis from her office in the County Executive Office Suite in the Courthouse.

Kelly Rindfleisch served as the fundraiser for Brett Davis for the time period of about January 31, 2010 until she resigned that position in July 2010. Kelly Rindfleisch was replaced by Dan Morse, a person who also worked as a fundraiser for the Friends of Scott Walker.⁶

From my knowledge of the race for Lieutenant Governor and from my review of GAB filings, I know that Brett Davis was a candidate for the Office of Lieutenant Governor. He was the candidate identified in campaign registration papers filed for the committee identified as "Brett Davis for Lt. Governor" with the GAB. I also know that a Primary Election was held in the race for the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor. That primary was held on September 14, 2010. Mr. Davis did not successfully emerge from the primary and was defeated by Rebecca Kleefisch.

a. Rindfleisch's fundraising work during the course of her official duties was not isolated during the time period of February 2010 to July 2010.

Based upon my review of e-mails obtained by Search Warrant from the Google Gmail account of Kelly Rindfleisch, kmrindfleisch@gmail.com, I know that Rindfleisch exchanged e-mails with brett.davis@charter.net, an account maintained by Brett Davis, a minimum of approximately 300 times between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday between February 3, 2010 and July 9, 2010.⁷ These e-mail contacts were almost always, if not exclusively, related to fundraising efforts.

Overall, from February 3, 2010 to July 9, 2010, between the hours of 8:00 and 5:00 p.m. other than the days on which she was out of the office for holidays or personal off-time, the investigation has identified about 1,380 e-mails sent or received by Kelly Rindfleisch related to fundraising activities.

⁶ See footnote 3.

⁷ This calculation excludes days on which Ms. Rindfleisch claimed off-time from work.

- b. Rindfleisch's fundraising work was accomplished using a secret e-mail system available to and used by select "insider" staffers for both official and unofficial business.

I know⁸ that Rindfleisch's e-mail communication was accomplished using an unofficial, personal laptop computer and networking equipment.

The unofficial networking system Rindfleisch used⁹ was established by Tim Russell. In the course of the execution of a Search Warrant in the Office of the County Executive on November 1, 2010, Milwaukee County District Attorney investigators searched the office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, formerly occupied by Tim Russell and occupied by Rindfleisch on the day of the search. In an armoire in that office, I am advised by investigators that they found packaging for two network devices. First, they found a box for an AT&T "USBConnect" "LaptopConnect" device. This is pictured on packaging as a USB device designed to be plugged into equipment for purposes of making a 3G broadband Internet connection. Second, investigators found a box for a wireless Netgear 3G Mobile broadband Wireless Router. Instruction sheets accompanying this Netgear device illustrate that it was designed to be connected to a "3G USB Modem," among other types of connections. Packaging labels found with these boxes bore the name of "Timothy Russell" and were addressed to 901 North 9th Street, Ste 306, Milwaukee, WI 53233-1425." The John Doe Judge issued a subpoena for the AT&T records of Timothy Russell and I have examined the records that AT&T produced. These records show that Russell was paying for a device with wireless numbers matching the AT&T "USBConnect" "LaptopConnect" device described immediately above and the records show a "Service Start Date" of October 16, 2009.¹⁰

The unofficial e-mail system was routinely used by selected insiders within the Walker administration. The existence of this e-mail system, which was based on personal Internet e-mail accounts and was used both for official and unofficial purposes, was never disclosed to county employees outside a closely held group within the Walker administration.

In fact, even though the secret e-mail system was used for business purposes which could have and which did include communications within the scope of Open Records requests, the existence of the system was never disclosed to Laurie Panella, the Acting Director of the Information Management Services Division. Panella was responsible for gathering all relevant e-mails in response to Open Records requests and she was part of an Open Records Committee that had been formed to respond to Open Record requests submitted to the Walker administration in May 2010. Panella testified that although it would have been important for her to know about such a private e-mail system, it was never disclosed to her. See Appendix B.

⁸ This statement is based upon the information developed in the course of the execution of a Search Warrant by Milwaukee County DA investigators including the seizure of Rindfleisch's laptop computer, an examination of that laptop computer, and statements of other County Executive office employees.

⁹ In his testimony before the John Doe Judge, former county employee Jon Myhre, a Policy Analyst for the County Executive in March and April of 2010, testified that Rindfleisch used a router device that allowed for a connection between a laptop and the Internet. He stated that he had assisted Kelly on at least one occasion with a router malfunction.

¹⁰ The equipment itself was not found. At the time the search warrant was executed, Ms. Rindfleisch's laptop was found "tethered" to her cell phone.

- c. Between February and July 2010, besides fundraising for Brett Davis, Rindfleisch otherwise spent significant periods of county time on communications with the Friends of Scott Walker campaign committee.

Besides raising funds for Brett Davis, Kelly Rindfleisch maintained regular contact with the Friends of Scott Walker campaign committee. Identified within the kmrindfleisch@gmail.com e-mail account seized by virtue of a John Doe search warrant, for the time period of February 3, 2010 to July 9, 2010 (excluding weekends, holidays and off-time) during standard business hours (8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.), the John Doe investigation has identified in excess of 1,000 e-mails on which either campaign manager Keith Gilkes, deputy campaign manager Stephan Thompson or campaign communications director Jill Bader was a sender or recipient. In other words, on more than 1,000 occasions between February and July 2010, Rindfleisch either sent e-mails to Gilkes, Bader or Thompson or she received an e-mail which was also received by either Gilkes, Bader or Thompson. This averages to about 10.8 such e-mails per day, with a maximum number of 74 such e-mails on April 29, 2010. Because Ms. Rindfleisch communicated with other campaign representatives (but on a less frequent basis), these numbers are illustrative and do not conclusively summarize e-mails on which Ms. Rindfleisch was either the sender or a recipient.

- d. The Contract to Raise Funds for Brett Davis and Conference Calls with the Davis Campaign Committee.

The contract between Rindfleisch and Brett Davis for fundraising services itself was exchanged via e-mail on Thursday February 4, 2010 at 3:40 p.m., with Rindfleisch sending the contract to Davis using her kmrindfleisch@gmail.com account. According to the terms of that contract, Rindfleisch was to be paid $1,000 per month. A review of Ms. Rindfleisch's bank records, obtained by virtue of a subpoena issued by the John Doe Judge indicate that a sum total of $5,000 was deposited into Rindfleisch's account paid to her by the Brett Davis campaign committee.

While many of the communications concerning fundraising were accomplished by Ms. Rindfleisch using e-mail, she also participated in conference calls with other members of the campaign. See Figure 7.¹¹

e. To Raise Funds for Brett Davis, Rindfleisch dealt with multiple different fundraiser hosts while she was in the County Executive's Office.

As part of the John Doe investigation, a number of fundraiser hosts and fundraiser facilitators who dealt with Kelly Rindfleisch gave statements before the John Doe Judge.

These persons included Ms. Candee Arndt, Ms. Crystal Berg, Ms. Patty DeGraff, Ms. Bronwyn Glojek, Mr. Michael Huebsch, Ms. Kathy Kiernan, Mr. Tim Lightner, Mr. Steve Peotter and Dr. Barrett Straub. Mr. Jason Thompson, the Treasurer for the campaign committee Brett Davis for Lt. Governor and a fundraiser host, also gave a statement to investigators. These individuals have confirmed their dealings with Ms. Rindfleisch during regular business hours, although they generally stated they were unaware that she worked in the Office of the Milwaukee County Executive.

¹¹ Figure 7 was obtained by virtue of a John Doe Search Warrant served on the Yahoo account of rellyk_us@yahoo.com. Doe witness James Villa identifies this moniker "rellyk_us" as belonging to Kelly Rindfleisch.

With all of these individuals, as a general practice, Ms. Rindfleisch followed the same pattern of interaction. Initial contact usually took the form of sharing a list of potential donors. See Figure 9,¹² Figure 8,¹³ and Figure 10.¹⁴

Can you add "Monday" to the date?

Also, we are leaning towards emailing the invites versus mailing them. Does that change in your mind any of the details on the bottom? Certainly, there is no address for the campaign attached (in case someone would like to mail a check in advance or just sending $$ and not coming to the event.)

4/14/2010	14:39	E-Mail	KR to Werwie with Attached "FR schedule.xlsx" (9KB): Maybe I forgot to attach it. Here it is (pretty much I think what you want).
4/14/2010	14:44	E-Mail	Werwie to KR: Candee Arndt's fundraiser is set for June 23rd 6-8pm. She is going to put the invite together, put together the invite list, and get all of the hosts. She said the only thing we will need to do is mail out the invites. She said she doesn't want Brett to "invite" too many of his friends, because she doesn't want this to be a "big" event. With that said I told her you'd be contacting her (email: carndtXXXX@XXXXXX.com, cell: 262-XXX-XXXX) just to see if there is anything we can provide assistance with. Brett seems confident that Candee will be able to put this whole event together by herself. So we won't need Brett to make host calls for this event and Candee is adamant that she wants to design the invite. I'm going to keep in touch with Candee just to make sure this event moves forward as planned. With that said, if you could put together the list of people you think we should invite to this event, I'd like to have further conversations with her to see if she'll let us invite people through our standard list building/ mailing process. While it is her house and she totally has a right not to want boatloads of people there, in my eyes, there is no such thing as a bad "big" event. So once I have my hands on that list I may either try to convince her it'll be a good thing to invite all of these people, or have Brett make the sale. I hope that makes sense- Cullen
4/14/2010	14:49	E-Mail	Werwie to KR Candee Arndt: Do either of you have a phone number for Casi Murphy from Menomonee Falls? I'd like to give her a call and the number I grabbed online doesn't have an answering machine and no one picked up. Thanks- Cullen
4/14/2010	15:06	E-Mail	Werwie to KR: This is perfect. Thanks. I can send you a reminder but if you could email me an updated spreadsheet every Friday, so that I know I have an updated one for every Sunday meeting I have with Brett, that would be much appreciated.
4/14/2010	15:33	E-Mail	Werwie to KR: We've gotten a few bad address returns on the invite mailings. Do you want me to get you the info on these returns so you can clean up your lists or should we just toss them out. Please advise Cullen
4/14/2010	16:09	E-Mail	Werwie to KR Sorry for the rash of emails this afternoon, I want to make sure I have stuff correct on the calendar. Just two quick questions-

Date	Time	Activity	Comments
			-Am I correct in saying that the Waukesha/Glojek event has been set in stone, and the fundraising process has begun? It is marked on Brett's calendar as tentative, and I want to make sure I don't drop the ball on confirming a date. -The Ozaukee event on May 13th is also marked on Brett's calendar as "Need Details from Barrett." Has this date been finalized? Do I need to confirm anything or follow-up with Barrett? Once we get to the point where I'll be scheduling all of these and getting you dates it'll be easier for me to keep track of where we are at with all of these. Thanks- Cullen
4/14/2010	16:36	E-Mail	KR to Werwie: You have to be careful with Candee. She does a lot of events and is very politically involved. I will contact her and feel her out on it. I'm inclined to just let her do it her way. She LOVES Brett and will be extremely helpful with any events we do in Waukesha. We just need to find someone there willing to do a big event.
4/14/2010	16:37	E-Mail	KR to Werwie re phone number for Casi Murphy: Cullen - I don't have it. I can do some searching through lists I have to see if I can find it.

I told him you'd get in contact with him and walk him through the host list process and help develop a list of people to invite. He told me he had a substantial number of people who have not been politically involved in the past, who are his personal friends that he would like to get involved and invite to this event. If

I know we are kind of in a crunch, but we told our cohosts to get back to us no later than April 25 so I think we have to wait until Monday after the mail. Sorry about that. I do know we need to get the invitations out quickly. I will email you the names on Monday. We have no ideas about printers so if you have one in mind that would be good. Let us know the cost. Another question: can we print return envelopes addressed to Brett Davis for Lieutenant Governor c/o Bronwyn Glojek, XXXXXXXXXX, Pewaukee, WI 53072 so I can keep track of approximate numbers or is that not done? Do you have a list of people you think should be invited - we would be happy to add them to our list. I know this is a tight timeline, but our times in May were limited because of the state convention and then we have a grandbaby due in Montana the end of the May. Candee's fundraiser is in June so we are scrambling!

			a tough host team but we ask no more from those we work with than we give ourselves. The event is more than just gathering people... it is putting ourselves & our reputation on the line for a candidate that we believe in. We have to get it right because as community leaders, we will need to tap into those people again and so far, they have trusted us enough to give serious consideration to what we say. Brett Davis is a great candidate but, as you know, his field is crowded with other candidates who are 'marketing' themselves so each time you reach out on his behalf it must begin with a product that oozes pride for Brett, his values and his ability to step into whatever role Scott Walker will want the Lt. Gov to play. Begin with an invitation that boldly informs the invitee of a 'EVENT INVITE' on the envelope and a message that causes people to take notice, be curious and anticipate attending... this sets the bar for expectations and in many cases is the first contact Brett will have with people. Make it a great impression. The mailing list also tells people a story about the candidate... if a household gets multiple invites, the addressee is deceased, name misspelled, needless to say, it reflects badly on Brett. People don't take time to realize it is 'staff' or volunteers making these decisions. We would be happy to discuss some host 'tips' to make the process of introducing Brett through events clearer, stronger and frankly, easier.

4/22/2010	9:13	E-Mail	Werwie to KR re Rhino Room: I don't think it will be a problem. Just don't put the Rhino room on the invite, and lets refer to it in all ways as the upstairs room. Let me just double check with Brett to get his thoughts I'll get back to you today.

4/22/2010	9:35	E-Mail	KR to Bronwyn Glojek, Candee Arndt, Werwie re Rhino Room: Bronwyn – I think the room is fine. I consulted with Cullen and Brett just to make sure. It won't be on the invite, so attention won't be drawn to it there. So, I think it's ok to stick with the original plan. On another note, Cullen mentioned that there is a meet & greet at your house on April 27. Neither he or I have been involved in helping to organize those, so I wanted to check with you to see if you need anything from either of us for that event. Anything we can do to help, just let us know. If you think it would be good to have some literature there, I'm sure Cullen can get something to you. Thanks again for everything, Kelly.

4/22/2010	9:59	E-Mail	Candee Arndt to KR: I think Jane is married to Todd Thiel but not for sure on that. He was VERY involved in the event. Google him...interesting guy. The Neleson's are from Chilton and own a country club in Chilton. I would call Bill & Ginny Curry who's son is a good friend of Brett's and get folks from him. He mentioned they need to start helping Brett in that area. He is the Walker whip. He can give you the scoop on everyone. You can mention I said he would help. candee

4/22/2010	14:21	E-Mail	Bronwyn Glojek to KR: RE: the meet and greet. Here is the background: Ardis and I were approached with holding a meet and greet (she lives in the condos right outside out subdivision). She wanted me to have it at our house because we have more room so I agreed. Since that time, Gary and I committed to the fundraiser we are organizing on May 17. I continued with the idea of the meet and greet mostly to accommodate Ardis. Ardis wanted me to contact you because she (and I guess I too) think we should cancel the meet and greet. She has been very involved in the voter fraud stuff and to be perfectly honest, has not been too committed to the meet and greet. I don't think it is worth Brett's time to come for the five people Ardis has invited (she doesn't want to ask them for money) and I have already or will soon be asking my guests for money. A couple of them are cohosts for our event. I have no problem calling them to cancel. Ardis thinks after last week in the legislature that Brett could use some downtime so she wanted me to contact you to cancel. I personally don't think it will be worth Brett's time. Sorry about that. We are looking forward to Brett joining us for the Armed Forces dinner at the Wisconsin Club (Candee plans this) on May 10. Bronwyn
4/22/2010	14:26	E-Mail	KR to Bronwyn Glojek: I think that makes sense. With your event coming up soon, I think that only makes sense. If you are comfortable with cancelling for the five, I will let Cullen know to take it off the calendar. If Ardis decides she'd like to do something later, we can always schedule. My guess is that the five will be at your event (or at least aware of it). I'll let Cullen know. Thanks for all of your help, Kelly

4/22/2010	14:28	E-Mail	KR to Werwie: You can cancel the meet & greet. There were only going to be 5 people, so I'm sure Brett has a better use for that time. He can surreptitiously make visits to lobbyists to see how they are doing and to say what he's doing that night just in passing.
4/22/2010	14:30	E-Mail	Bronwyn Glojek to KR: Ardis will cancel her five and I will cancel my guests -most of mine will be included in the fundraiser. Thanks, Bronwyn

4/22/2010	14:59	E-Mail	Werwie to KR: I know this isn't directly fundraising related, but over the last few days I've got a handle on how the email system we're signed up to works and now I'm looking for ways to get as many email addresses in there as possible. Graul started us out with a list of like 15000, and it looks like over the past few months, we've managed to get our hands on a few other lists that I recently plugged into the email system. I just wanted to shoot you an email to ask if you have any huge lists of email addresses that I could dump into our system. Or if you had any creative ideas on ways to get other lists. Thanks CJW
4/22/2010	15:22	E-Mail	KR to Werwie re email lists: Let me think about that one. I know I have Welch lists that have some e-mails on them, but those are 6 years old. I'll think about it.

We are also putting together an "invitation list" for you to use along with the GOP donor list you previously provided. I foresee the invite saying something like: Barrett Straub and Matt McManus invite you to attend a reception for Rep. Brett Davis in his campaign for Lieutenant Governor. Special Guest: Representative Mark Gottlieb Sheriff Maury Straub Platinum Hosts: Gold Hosts: Silver Hosts: Bronze Hosts: Port Washington Hotel 101 E. Main Street Port Washington, WI 5-7pm Complimentary Appetizers will be served and a full cash bar will be available.

²⁵ Table 8 reflects only fundraising-related e-mails. In addition to these e-mails, Ms. Rindfleisch also sent or received three e-mails from County Executive staff members. Additionally, her account included fifteen e-mails which she either sent to, received from or was a recipient with persons associated with the campaign committee, Friends of Scott Walker.

f. Rindfleisch's fundraising activity for Brett Davis declined during the workday after Darlene Wink's resignation.

I note a marked drop of daytime fundraising activity on and after May 14, 2010. This was the day that the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel reported that Darlene Wink was engaging in apparent partisan political activity during county work hours, writing pro-Walker posts to the Journal Sentinel as "rpmcvp."

In order to access the Internet, both Darlene Wink and Kelly Rindfleisch used laptop computers that they brought into the office. As noted above, Rindfleisch was able to access the Internet though an unofficial wireless router.²⁶

On the day of the Journal Sentinel article, May 14, 2010, at 8:56 in the morning, while "chatting" with Tim Russell, Rindfleisch advised Russell, "I took the wireless down. It's in my bag for now."

At least in the short term, the resignation of Darlene Wink had an impact on the activity of the County Executive's Office. This is reflected in an e-mail exchange between Scott Walker (skw@scottwalker.org) and Tim Russell, then serving as the Director of Housing for the Department of Health and Human Services. See Figure 15 recovered from the kmrindfleisch@gmail.com account.

This e-mail (Figure 15), with its reference to no more laptops during the workday, provides an apparent explanation for the drop in Rindfleisch's daytime fundraising activity in the few weeks following Darlene Wink's resignation.

In the weeks after Darlene Wink's resignation, Dan Morse, a Scott Walker fundraiser, was brought on to assist Brett Davis in his money-raising efforts. As explained in Figure 16, Rindfleisch and Morse did not work well together, and in mid July 2010, Kelly ended her relationship with Brett Davis and his campaign. Figure 16 is a copy of an e-mail thread taken from kmrindfleisch@gmail.com written to FOSW campaign manager Keith Gilkes on Monday, July 12, 2010, the first day of a week of Rindfleisch vacation.

²⁶ See paragraph text accompanying footnote 9.

The fundraiser hosts and facilitators identified in this complaint generally testified before the John Doe Judge that they were never instructed not to have contact with Ms. Rindfleisch during normal business hours and all stated that they did not know she was doing this fundraising work while being paid to serve as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Scott Walker.

APPENDIX B

July 26, 2011 John Doe Transcript of Testimony of Laurie Panella, Pages 61 – 64.

19 Q. Okay. Are you aware of any other non [Lotus N]otes system

20 that County employees in the County Executive's

21 Office were using during the course of the business

22 day?

23 A. No, I was not aware of any other type of system.

24 Q. Okay. So if there was an employee in the County

25 Executive's Office that was using a County work

1 station to, say for example send Gmail type

2 e-mails, you were not aware of that, at least as

3 you sit here today? Let me withdraw the question.

4 If there was a County Executive

5 employee that was using a County computer to access

6 a Gmail account, as an example, you were unaware of 7 that in connection with your work in response to 8 the open records request?

9 A. That is a true statement.

10 Q. Okay. And if there was a County Executive employee

11 that was -- strike that.

12 If there was a DAS employee during 13 the course of the workday that was using their

14 County computer to access a private e-mail the 15 account and send e-mails that would have fallen

16 within the scope of any open records requests, you 17 were unaware of that as well?

18 A. I would not have -- I would not be aware of that, 19 no.

20 Q. And -- and in the committee meetings that you sat
21 in did Ms. -- strike that.

22 Did -- in the committee meetings that 23 you sat in on did Mr. Russell ever volunteer that 24 he was routinely using a private e-mail address
25 during the course of the business day?

1 A. No.

2 Q. We've talked about indirectly and directly e-mails
3 that were traded between Mr. Russell and Ms. Wink;
4 yes?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. They were the subject of open records requests;
7 yes?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You believe based upon your work within the open 10 records group, do you not, that Mr. Russell knew of 11 the open records requests for his e-mail that were 12 exchanged with Ms. Wink?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And Mr. Russell never volunteered that he and 15 Ms. Wink had exchanges in private e-mail addresses

16 during the course of the business day?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And Ms. Rindfleisch, you identified her as one of 19 the outspoken people on the committee; yes?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did Ms. Rindfleisch ever disclose to the open

22 records committee that she had substantial private

23 e-mail communications during the course of the 24 business day to you or to anyone else on the work

25 group?

1 A. No, she did not mention that.

July 26, 2011 John Doe Transcript of Testimony of Laurie Panella, Page 79.

2 Q. Okay. But you generally were the person who was

3 charged with --

4 A. With e-mails.

5 Q. With collecting e-mails; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And so I -- would you agree with me that that would 8 have been important information for you to know?

9 A. It would have been important information. It is 10 important information for me to know.
